NEW AT WENTE

SUMMER CAMP HIGHLIGHTS

Where to being...merit badges, program development, new tents? Summer 2018 brought with it changes to many facets of Wente's Boy Scout Resident Camp.

Between the ever popular bottle rockets of Space Exploration and the addition of Nuclear Science making dry ice cloud chambers, Nature is a happening place.

Scoutcraft saw the expansion of Cooking thanks to some new equipment and two counselors to keep safety in check while allowing more scouts the experience. Fire Safety also got a revamp to include a tour of the firehouse of Little Lake Fire Department in the good ol' Willits. One scout came into the camp office saying he now wanted to be a firefighter!

The Risin' W Corral added Veterinary Medicine to compliment the horse program and alternate with Animal Science, but came to realize we may be able to run both together next summer.

Last but not least, Textiles came to Handicraft. Learning about the creation, dying, care and preservation of fabric types from natural fibers to those that are man-made.

BLAST FROM THE PAST

These days it's not uncommon for Wente's Dining Hall to feed upwards of 500 scouts per week from as many as thirty different troops in camp. Well, back in the 60's it was a much different story at the new summer camp.

In an article from the Oakland Tribune dated June 28, 1966 it stated, "Six troops are enjoying the week at the new Willits Scout Reservation where Jamboree style feeding is done. The huge reservation in Mendocino County, containing 1,940 acres including an 80-acre lake features an aquatic program and lifesaving. The boys cook their own meals on wood burning stoves with food and menus issued daily by the camp Commissary."

During that same week back in 1966, our sister camp, Camp Royaneh had over 460 scouts and former camp, Camp Dimond-O had over 300 scouts. With the established summer programs of Camp Royaneh and Dimond-O, heading to a new camp that was still in its infancy meant Wente didn't have the strong appeal to troops that our camp has now developed. Also, where Royaneh and Dimond-O had large mess halls, the campers at Wente Scout Reservation cooked their own food on wood burning stoves until the late 80's.

Oakland Council's first visit to Foley Ranch (looking out towards Waterfront from what is now O'Riley's Outpost)
